Please note the following changes to the calendar this year:

October 13 is a conference day because some parents have this day off work. Having conferences on this day allow more parents to attend conferences without interfering with their work obligations.

November 11 is a faculty professional development day because some parents have this day off work and this reduces child care issues on professional development days.

EBIPA will organize Teacher Appreciation opportunities throughout the year at strategic moments rather than during one week in May.
